

Workshop at NERM

EFFECTIVE JOB SEARCHING FOR UNDERGRADUATE CHEMISTS

October 9, 2009 1:00 – 5:00

Hartford Hilton, Hartford, CT

Sponsored by the Department of Chemistry, University of Connecticut, the UCONN Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society (ACS), the Connecticut Valley Section of the ACS and Bristol-Myers Squibb Research and Development

Workshop Topics

Opening Discussion:

Grad School vs. Getting a Job and Job Search Strategies

*Dr. Daniel Eustace, ACS Career Consultant
Adjunct Professor, UConn*

Preparing a Resume and Locating Jobs

*Dr. Nicholas Meanwell
Executive Director of Chemistry
Bristol-Myers Squibb Research and Development*

Interviewing

Dr. Dan Eustace

Preparing and Giving Research Presentations

*Dr. Susan Sobolov
Head of Research Project Management
Novartis Institutes for BioMedical Research*

Also included: Mock Interviews and Resume Review (bring a copy of your resume!)

FREE on-line Workshop registration when you register for NERM

For further information, please contact
Professor Amy Howell, Workshop Organizer
amy.howell@uconn.edu

NERM Website: <http://membership.acs.org/N/nerm/>