Picking Out an A+ Outfit for the Lab

- Safety goggles
- Full-length pants
- Lab coat (required for Organic Chem Lab)
- Closed toe shoes

- Tops that cover torso and upper arms/shoulder
- Crop tops and tank tops
- Torn denim that exposes skin
- Pants that leave any part of the ankle exposed
- Shoes that exposes the top of the foot

HuskyCT site for Chemistry Majors? Find “Department Postings for Chemistry Majors” in HuskyCT under “My Non-Class Sites”. It contains information on getting scholarships, research positions, leadership opportunities, REU programs, summer jobs, and jobs upon graduation. Undergraduate Chemistry major and do not have access? Please email jill.grakowsky@uconn.edu.

If you have ideas for the Stall Street Journal, contact: weiyu.zhang@uconn.edu or gillian.macusi@uconn.edu
For more information on laboratory safety, visit www.ehs.uconn.edu

ACS Chemistry for U
Join Chemistry Club
Fun Activities • Demonstrations • Outreach Professional Development • Get Involved!

uconn.chemclub@gmail.com  UConn Chemistry Club